New Idol

Paris' sleeker new style, which she wore on the March 28 show, makes her look more mature.

"Whenever I curl Katharine's hair, she always touches and plays with it," says Banowitz. What to do? "I have to put it in a hairnet until showtime so she doesn't pull out the curl."

PARIS IS ALL GROWN-UP

"Paris Bennett's change is the most dramatic," says stylist Dean Banowitz, who revamped the 17-year-old's look. "She's not afraid to have fun with her hair, and she loves to try different things." Rather than completely taming Paris' tresses, Banowitz has simply refined them — giving the singer a sleek pompadour in place of poodle-esque pigtails.

KATHARINE GETS MEGAGLAM

Katharine McPhee's limp brown locks didn't impress anyone during the Idol auditions. But since debuting her glamorous 18-inch wavy extensions on March 21, she's been racking up the votes show after show. "Katharine loves the look of full, thick hair," says Banowitz of the 21-year-old. "It makes her feel sexy." America agrees!
