KRISTEN SLIPS RINGLETS BACK INTO A PONY

Stars love the look of a side ponytail; it's less severe than an updo but just as elegant. "It looks like it took a lot of time, but it's actually easy to do," Colon says about Kristen Bell's chic style.

GET THE LOOK

STEP 1 Apply thickening spray all over dry hair.

STEP 2 Create a side part, then loosely pull back a 2-inch section of hair at the center of the forehead and pin to the side.

STEP 3 Curl 2-inch sections of hair — from midshaft to ends only — with a 1½-inch curling iron.

STEP 4 Gather hair into a low side-swept ponytail. Wrap a thin section of hair around the base to cover the elastic band.

STEP 5 Take random curls and pin them above and below the ponytail. Finish with a spritz of soft-hold hair spray.
